

Collegiate Study

This six week, web-based bible study teaches college students God's perspective of managing money and possessions. It can be accessed from a smartphone, tablet, computer or virtually any device with a web browser. It will provide the practical applications of handling finances, and really gets to the heart of the matter. The Give, Save & Spend Study has been designed for small groups but has the flexibility to be used as a self study, in a classroom setting or one-on-one.
