

Set Your House in Order

The five-week Set Your House in Order small group study is designed to enable you to assemble and organise your important financial information in just one place. Set Your House in Order is also an outstanding tool to help you plan your estate and manage your current finances. A free copy of Your Money Counts is included with the study!

Topics Include:

- Building a foundation
- Taking inventory
- Providing for your loved ones
- Leaving a legacy

Features:

» Practical tools can be accessed in the workbook as well as electronically and on-line.

Student hardcopy $30

Student online $15

Student & Facilitator eWorkbooks available for purchase at www.compassbooks.org

Flexible Teaching Format

A small group is the most effective setting for applying what you'll learn in this study. The small group format is flexible and can be taught in a variety of ways. The study may also be conducted in a classroom, seminar or completed as a self-study.